RUNGE - PINCOCK ALLEN and HOLT will be presenting their PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT COURSES again in November 2007

The courses will be presented in CALGARY, CANADA and DENVER, USA
The courses that are being offered this year are:

Mining for Non-Miners

Canada - 23rd November - Calgary
USA - 12th November - Denver

> 25 Topics have been developed for this course covering Mining Terminology, Mining Methods through to Mine Costing.

Remember we can also conduct the Mining for Non-Miners Courses in-house and on demand to your organisation

Dragline Mining Systems

USA - 13th - 14th November - Denver

> This course addresses issues to deal with the changing industry and the need to improve one's cost position. It presents planning and operational methods of dragline mining systems, and is organised for managers, engineers, geologists, scientists, and operators involved with or having interest in dragline operations.

Mining Economics

Canada - 19th - 20th November - Calgary
USA - 15th - 16th November - Denver

> This course will keep your whole team thinking costs, economics and profitability. It will give you the tools for robust decision-making. It will focus your planning engineers and senior production staff on cost-efficiency in every step of their work - from mine design and layout to day-to-day equipment deployment.
